

Assessing the Transition

In the left hand column, check the statements that are true of you. In the right hand column, write how this statement might read after you graduate and start a new job.

WHAT'S TRUE ABOUT MY LIFE IN COLLEGE

- My parents are paying all or part of my rent and/or bills
- I am on my parent's health and/or car insurance
- My monthly paychecks are between $0 And $900/month
- I have roommates and we have been friends for at least two years
- Most of the people I am surrounded by each day are my own age
- I see my closest friends at least every other day
- I have an older person who meets with me on a regular basis to help me grow
- I usually go to class, but sometimes I just don't feel like going and skip out
- I scheduled my classes so that I do not have to get up before 9:00 A.M.
- I have dropped classes because I did not like the professor or it was too much work
- I have served in ministry because someone approached me and challenged me to a specific role or position

WHAT WILL BE TRUE AFTER I GRADUATE AND START A NEW JOB

Key Questions

- ⇒ When you think about graduating, what are some of the first things that come to your mind?

- ⇒ What concerns you most as you think about leaving the college environment?

- ⇒ How do you picture yourself ministering to others after you leave college?

- ⇒ What are you doing to prepare yourself for the transition ahead?